

Our Troop Story:

by Brownie Troop 4506

created April 1, 2005

I skipped through a field full of flowers in all the colors of the rainbow when all of a sudden... A big dog came by. Then a giant cat walked through. All the flowers got squished by the cat. Then the flowers turned into a rainbow and the dog and the cat climbed up the rainbow and slid down into a pot of gold. Then a big giant fire breathing dragon came. The dog and the cat captured the dragon. Then suddenly the puppies ran out of their cages. Then a puppy that was bigger than the whole universe came and took his bone that was bigger than the whole universe with him down the rainbow slide and broke it. Then a big rabbit came with babies. The baby bunnies played at the park. I was playing with the bunnies. The mother rabbit was chasing the baby bunnies because it was time to leave. Then I fell asleep. Then I woke up and played with all the rabbits and did the cha-cha. Then I fell asleep again. A witch came and cast a spell on me! Then I woke up and it was all a dream!
